

The Toe River Arts Council welcomes the East Tennessee State University's OLD TIME RAMBLERS

Join us at Harris Middle School in Spruce Pine on Thursday, March 15th for a
FREE PUBLIC PERFORMANCE from 5-6pm!

The ETSU Old-Time Ramblers is a 5-piece stringband of students from the Bluegrass, Old-Time and Country Music Studies program at East Tennessee State University. The band focuses on songs and tunes from the early period of country music, a time when fiddles and banjos and a good song were to be found in just about every nook and holler of the Appalachian Mountains.

North Carolina
Arts
Council
Fifty years of leadership

This performance and TAPS workshops are funded in part by a grant from South Arts in partnership with the National Endowment for the Arts and the Toe River Arts Council. Due to the generous support by the NC Arts Council, a division of the Natural and Cultural Resources Department, a state agency, TAPS has become one of TRAC's most successful programs. We look forward to continuing and expanding TAPS programming in our two counties.